The Romance of Ribbon

A TINY streamer from the seal of a state document, a knot of ribbon carried by a knight as his lady's favor, a rosette from a little slipper, a strip of tri-colored glory—tokens of tragedy, love, bravery. Thus, through the pages of history winds the romance of ribbon.

It was during the reign of Queen Elizabeth that ribbon, as we know it today, first came into use. The elegantes of both sexes welcomed it with great enthusiasm. "At this day"—we quote a historian—"men of meane rank weare garters and shoe roses of more than five pounds price." And the ladies twisted ribbon in their elaborate headgear and with lavish hands sprinkled rosettes, bows and love-knots upon their gorgeous dresses.

A more practical use for ribbon was found in Scotland, where, until recent years, a snood or ribband on the hair signified that the young lady was unmarried, in much the same fashion as a blue ribbon or a pink one run through a wee frock means "it's a boy" or "a baby girl," as the case may be.

But ribbon reached even greater heights in the days of Louis XVI. Not only did the gentlemen wear hair ribbons, and their ladies beribbon almost everything they wore, but they gave their ribbons such descriptive titles as "Attention," "Mark of Hope," "Downeast Eye," "Sigh of Venus." It must have been amusing to match one's mood with one's ribbon.

Sometimes gleaming, sometimes sombre, ribbon winds its way through history. Today it swirls about us in its fullest glory, exquisite and fascinating, in myriad patterns and in colors that mock the rainbow!

There is something so charmingly feminine about ribbon; it lends itself to such dainty effects. Small wonder that it has endeared itself not only to fashion but to beautiful home decoration.

In this book are shown hundreds of ribbon uses, smart articles of wearing apparel, clever little Frenchy fashions, irresistible accessories, daintiest baby things, simple practical household usages, innumerable ribbony ways.

To make a smart hat, a baby sacque, a picturesque sweater, entirely of ribbon; to pick up a shimmery ribbon length, twist it in your fingers and find it has been transformed into a lovely blossom; to fold a bit of ribbon this way and that, and achieve the voguish trimming that the most expensive frocks are featuring; to run a yard or so of ribbon through your lingerie and find it fresh and new again; to make lovely things lovelier—these are the joys that ribbon brings to you!
UNUSUAL HAIR ORNAMENTS—BOUDOIR DAINTIES

Each of the sachet pads is 2½ inches square. 7 strips 4 inches long of ¾-inch 2-tone ribbon are used for the latticed top (see page 40), and 3 inches of 2⅛-inch ribbon for back. The bias ends of each of the latticed strips form a pointed edging around each pad. ½ yard of the narrow ribbon is used for the streamers.

The sachet case is made of 4 separate pads. Each is a triangle 3½ inches at the base. One of the points at the base of each triangle is turned back to meet the center. Little hand-painted flowers and a knotted rosette of ½ yards of baby ribbon decorate the center.

Boudoir caps made of lace and ribbon are the height of fashion. The one above measures one yard at the circumference. The top is made of lace 12 inches in diameter shirred slightly around a ribbon 5 inches wide, allowing 1 inch of the ribbon on top for ruffling. Lace edging 2 inches wide is placed underneath the lower edge of the ribbon, allowing ½ inch of the lace to protrude from it. One yard of ¾-inch ribbon is placed around the brim through which elastic is drawn. ½ yard of 4-inch ribbon trims the front, and 6-inch streamers allowed at either side. Buds and tiny streamers further decorate the cap.

The vanity case above in its many rows of dainty ribbons gives ample cause for its name. The bag is made of ¼ yard of 6-inch satin ribbon, upon which the rows of gathering are stitched. 6 yards of 1-inch ribbon are used for the 9 rows of ruffling. 2 buds of 6-inch ribbon in a contrasting color decorate the bag. A mirror 2 inches in diameter is sewed to bottom.

The lingerie band or linen band is made of 1½ yards of 2-inch ribbon edged with French val lace. A sachet is attached at one end under band, and a slide 2 inches wide by 5 inches long is made to regulate the band. 2 flowers and buds decorate the front part. Other bands, pages 3, 43 and 47.

The above powder puff and mirror claim first place in originality. Both are attached to handles 7 inches long and require ½ yard of ½-inch ribbon to cover them. ½ yard of ¾-inch ribbon is shirred at both ends and placed around the mirror and same amount around the puff. ½ yard of ½-inch lace is placed around the circumference to add a finishing touch to the set. The backs of mirror and puff are covered with ribbon.

Buds and Flowers are illustrated and described in detail on pages 38 and 39.
BOUDOIR LUXURIES CAST A RIBBON CHARM

The boudoir cap above is made as follows: 2 contrasting shades of ribbon 32 inches long and 4 inches wide are sewed together with overcasting stitches at one edge, and the other edge shirred on wire for head-size. 2 strips 32 inches long of either color are shirred for crown, a wire inserted where the 2 strips are sewed together. The top is shirred to a point. The cap is dented and buds placed at each dent.

Above is a hair band made of ribbon, to serve as a more decorative boudoir cap. 12 yards of 1/4-inch two-tone pleat-edge ribbon is required for the whole: 8 bands, each 1/4 yard, form the framework. Rosettes are placed on either side, the larger one measuring 4 yards and the smaller one 2 yards, both finished off with streamers. Each row is decorated with loops in the center, held solid on a wire foundation. From one side extends a braided band which reaches around the back of the head and fastens at the other side.

To serve for a pin cushion or sachet bag! The center is made of 6 inches of ribbon, 21/2 inches wide, 1/2 yard of 3-inch ribbon of contrasting color is used for the sides, shirred at both ends to fit the 4-inch circumference, 3 inches of the 21/2-inch ribbon is cut lengthwise and placed in the center on either side around which the ends are shirred and fastened.

The head band above serves the purpose of a boudoir cap. It is made on a net foundation and measures 17 inches from point to point. The ribbon is shirred before it is sewed to the net. 10 yards of 1/2-inch ribbon is required. 2 yards are used for the streamers and 1 yard for the back band through which elastic is drawn and which is fastened with snaps at one side. Buds decorate the front.

The case which may hold Milady's dainty handkerchiefs or head bands is made in lattice work of 1/2-inch ribbon. 17 yards of ribbon is used for the case 10 by 5 inches, and 1/2 of a yard for the bow. 20 inches of 3-inch ribbon is used for the lining. Buds and streamers decorate the front. The case may be fastened with snaps or tied by means of the streamers. (For lattice work or blocking, see page 49.)

The lady above conceals a needle case and a cotton holder. 1/2 yard of 1-inch ribbon is used for the dress, 5 yard lace is gathered for lace ruffle. 1/2 yard of 4-inch ribbon is draped around the waist. 1 yard of 1-inch ribbon is used around loops and 1/2 yard of 1/2-inch ribbon for the bows on top. 12 inches of the ribbon is twisted into loops and fastened in back. (See page 48.) On each loop a small peice of cotton is inserted. 3 pieces of flannel about 4 inches square are covered with ribbon top and bottom and inserted underneath dress for needles.

Detailed drawings and descriptions of Buds are found on pages 38 and 39. Rosettes, etc., pages 15 and 16.

PARIS TWISTS A BAND ABOUT HER BROW

The above is a boudoir band made of ribbon and lace. It is 14 inches long by 6 inches wide and is made on a net foundation. The band is tied in back with streamers.

Use 3½ yards of 1-inch ribbon for the 3 rows, rosettes and streamers. 2 yards of 1-inch lace is shirred and outlines the cap.

The hair band above illustrated is quite the thing for evening wear. It is made on a wire foundation band with ribbon. 30 wheel-like motifs are arranged on the foundation and overlap each other, each wheel requiring 4½ inches of metal ribbon.

Dainty Buds and Flowers are easy to make. For directions, see pages 38 and 39.
BABY ACCESSORIES TO INSTILL ORDER AND COMFORT

A little coatette made of satin ribbon is attractive. The one above requires 2 yards of satin ribbon 9 inches wide for the top, and 3 yards of 6-inch ribbon for the lining; 2 yards of baby ribbon for the shirring. Rosebuds and streamers of 3/4-inch ribbon decorate the front.

A cap easily made is shown here. It requires 2 yards of 5-inch satin ribbon. Six yards of baby ribbon are used for the shirring, and 1 yard of 1-inch ribbon for the tie bow streamers.

A ribboned box for her tiny bonnets is made of 3 3/4 yards of 8-inch ribbon as follows: 1 yard for the box, 1 yard for the cover shirred to a point and tied in a knot at the top; 8 inches for square covering bottom, and 32 inches to line the box. 1 1/4 yard of 4-inch ribbon which is rolled around the knot at the top forms the loop and streamer.

Simple and comfort is portrayed in the workmanship of the long kimono made of cashmere and bound with ribbon. 1 1/2 yards of 1 3/4-inch ribbon is used for the front, 1 3/4 yard for the neck and the tie bow, and 8 inches for each sleeve. Feather stitches of white outline the ribbon trimmings.

A little feet require little material, and on that account little expense and effort are required to make these booties. 1 yard of 6-inch ribbon is used for the booties, 3 yards of 3/4-inch baby ribbon for the shirring, and 3 yards of 3/4-inch ribbon for the binding.

The comfy jacket speaks for itself. To make it, use 1 yard of satin ribbon 9 inches wide, lined with 2 yards of 4 1/2-inch satin ribbon. For the shirring 10 yards of 1 1/2-inch ribbon are required, and the collar takes 1 1/2 yard of the 4-inch ribbon. 1/2 sheet of wadding is needed for the interlining.

Method of covering round bar with ribbon.

Pad a wooden hanger with wadding or other material, then cover with 1 yard of 3-inch ribbon for top and bottom to fit shape of hanger. 10 yards of baby ribbon are required for trimming; 1/4 yard wound around the handle and a large knotted rosette at bottom of the handle. 15 streamers are made, varying in size, each knotted at the ends.
LITTLE THINGS OF GREAT IMPORTANCE

Little announcement cards must be trimmed with ribbon to fully express the glory of the occasion. Small bows and streamers as illustrated above are the proper fashion.

4 1/2 yards of 2-inch satin ribbon is shirred and binds the baby bunting. 2 yards of 5-inch satin ribbon is used for the 5-looped bow, each loop measuring 12 inches and streamer 9 inches. 1/2 yard of 2-inch ribbon makes bow on hood.

The rosette on the comfy blanket has 20 loops of 1/4-inch ribbon, each 7 inches long, knotted in the center for artistic effect. These are two longer loops and 2 long streamers. The blanket is bound with 2 1/2 yards of 1 1/2-inch ribbon.

The 3 tiny bows above are fastened to a safety pin and adjusted wherever necessary. For each bow use 10 inches of ribbon 3/4-inch wide, and 2 inches of 1/4-inch width for the tiny bud in the center.

The pillow case above is the regulation size. It is trimmed with ribbon and lace. 2 1/2 yards of 1 1/2-inch figured ribbon is drawn through the insertion and 1/4 yard of the same ribbon is made into a bow.

Clamps decorated with ribbon help to trim up baby's carriage. The pair above require 1 yard of 1 1/2-inch satin ribbon shirred to fit the clamp. The knotted rosette on each clamp requires 1 1/2 yards of 3/4-inch satin ribbon.

Side garters for the tiny mite are not complete without a dainty bow. The ones illustrated on this page require 1/2 yard of 1/4-inch ribbon for each bow. 1/2 inches of blue baby ribbon is formed into tiny buds for both garters.

Baby's socks have to be kept in place to develop the habit of neatness. The garters to the left require 1 1/4 yards of 1/4-inch ribbon stitched together for elastic. 1 1/2 yards of baby ribbon forms the rosettes for both garters.
CONCERNING BASSINETTES AND BASKETS

The bottom of the bassinet requires a pad 22 by 16 inches. Yardage used:
- 10 yards of 3-inch ribbon for the blocking of pad, with 1 sheet of wadding for padding, lined with 2½ yards of ½-inch ribbon.
- 10 yards of ¾-inch ribbon shirred for sides of carriage, padded with 3 thicknesses of wadding.
- 50 yards of baby ribbon for shirring which outlines blocks on pad, on lace trimmings, and on seams.
- 8 yards of lace, 3½ inches wide, gathered to fit hood and circumference of carriage, and 8 yards of 3-inch ribbon gathered under it.
- 2½ yards of ½-inch ribbon for 6-looped bow, each loop 7 inches.

A round basket for Baby’s small things is a necessity. The top diameter of the basket measures 16 inches, and the bottom 12 inches. There are 2 pockets and 2 pincushions which serve both useful and decorative purposes. The following materials are necessary to work the basket:
- 4 yards of 4-inch satin ribbon shirred for lining sides.
- 6 yards of 2½-inch ribbon for blocking the pad and 2 yards of wadding for padding.
- 80 yards of baby ribbon for shirring to outline the blocks on the pad and to decorate the lace.
- 8 yards of ½-inch ribbon for plaiting at the top.
- 2 yards of 1½-inch ribbon to line the handle.
- 7 yards of 1-inch ribbon for plaiting on either side of handle and 7 yards of lace ½ inches wide gathered over plaiting.
- 2 yards of lace for trimming and ¼ yard for each tiny bud is used for the cushions and pockets.

This charming pillow fits the bassinet illustrated to the left, and the following is the yardage for regulation size.
- 12 yards of 2-inch satin ribbon for blocking, and 2 pieces of baby ribbon for shirring which outlines each block and also decorates the lace.
- 3 yards of ½-inch lace shirred, and 3 yards of 3-inch ribbon under the lace ruffle.
- 1 yard of 6-inch ribbon in 2 strips for lining of pillow.

A round basket for Baby’s small things is a necessity. The top diameter of the basket measures 16 inches, and the bottom 12 inches. There are 2 pockets and 2 pincushions which serve both useful and decorative purposes. The following materials are necessary to work the basket:
- 4 yards of 4-inch satin ribbon shirred for lining sides.
- 6 yards of 2½-inch ribbon for blocking the pad and 2 yards of wadding for padding.
- 80 yards of baby ribbon for shirring to outline the blocks on the pad and to decorate the lace.
- 8 yards of ½-inch ribbon for plaiting at the top.
- 2 yards of 1½-inch ribbon to line the handle.
- 7 yards of 1-inch ribbon for plaiting on either side of handle and 7 yards of lace ½ inches wide gathered over plaiting.
- 2 yards of lace for trimming and ¼ yard for each tiny bud is used for the cushions and pockets.

For details of Bows, see pages 15 and 16. For Lattice Work and Shirring, see page 40.

There are four compartments in this bureau; the floor of each is decorated with a pad of latticed ribbon, trimmed with shirring of baby ribbon. The top drawer is lined with ribbon, over which is placed a lace ruffle. The inside of the top cover is decorated with lattice work in the same way as the floors of the other compartments.

2 bows, each requiring 2½ yards of ½-inch ribbon, are used for the top and side of the bureau.
BLUE FOR THE BOY—PINK FOR THE GIRL

A bonnet for the tiny Miss, cheaply and quickly made, is illustrated to the left:
1 yard of 8-inch Jacquard ribbon of contrasting color is used for the hat. 9 inches of the ribbon is gathered for the crown, and the remaining ¾ of a yard is cut lengthwise and stitched together, making ¾ yards shirred to required size for the brim.

4½ yards of ½-inch figured satin ribbon is used for the knotted band, rosettes and streamers.

A carriage clamp made of ribbon with some little toys fastened to it is decorative, joyful, and provides for safety:
1½ yards of ribbon cut in half is sewed together lengthwise (see page 17, Diagram III), allowing ½ inch top and bottom for ruffling. Pull ½-inch elastic through opening.

½ yard of ½-inch ribbon is required for each of the bows, and ¾ yard for each of the 2 streamers on which a rattle and teething rings are fastened. Clamps are securely stitched on to both sides.

Step 1—Cardboard foundation with ribbon underneath.
Step 2—Wrong side of cardboard—Ribbon sewed on.
Step 3—Covered foundation—Ribbon shirred around it.

Covers made of eiderdown are warm and are made for Baby's comfort, but when trimmed with ribbon they become beautiful as well. The cover is ¾ of a yard wide and 1½ yards long, including the pointed lap-over of 9 inches:

3½ yards of 2-inch satin ribbon is used for the band to outline edges and 3 yards each of 1-inch blue ribbon and ½-inch pink are used for the narrower bands.

3 yards makes the 6-looped bow with 9 inches allowed for each of the streamers.

The pretty carriage strap is part of an exquisite layette illustrated elsewhere in the book:
5 yards of ½-inch ribbon is used for the lattice blocking. (See page 40.)

3 yards of baby ribbon is shirred and outlines each edge.

2½ yards of satin ribbon 1 inch wide for the rosettes, and 2 yards of ¾-inch for the 4 roses, with same amount for leaves.

½ yard of 2½-inch satin ribbon is folded lengthwise, stitched together and used for the back of the strap, ½ yard of elastic, 1 inch wide, is pulled through.

The scales are a most essential part of a baby's layette, for they tell a story of health and joy. To make the scale illustrated, the following materials are necessary:
A separate pad of lattice work fits into the scale, for which 2½ pieces (25 yards) of 1-inch ribbon is necessary for the lattice, 2 yards of 4-inch ribbon for the lining of the pad, 1 yard of wadding for the pad. (See page 40 for lattice.)

The sides of the scale are padded with lamb's wool and 1 piece of 4-inch ribbon is folded in ½-inch plait and used to decorate the inside. The ends of the plaiting, wherever too wide, lap over the sides of the scale.

4 yards of ½-inch lace and 4 yards of 1-inch insertion are sewed together and gathered to fit around the basket; the lace is decorated with 1 piece of shirred baby ribbon.

6 yards of 4-inch ribbon is plaited and used under the lace.
14 rose rosettes are used to decorate the top of the lace ruffles.

The important tiny hot-water bottle requires:
1¾ yards of 2-inch satin ribbon which is shirred to fit around the ribbon covered oval cardboard 2½ by 1½ inches. (See diagrams to the left.)

½ yard of 5-inch ribbon is used for the back of the bag and 1½ yards of baby ribbon for the two draw strings. 2½ inches is turned in for the top hem and opening for draw string.

Bows and Rosettes described on pages 15 and 16.
RIBBONS THAT BIND ONE TO YOUTH

A Silk Bow for the Silken Locks

All-Over Ribbon for the Successful Graduate

The little schoolgirl, the confirmation girl, and the sweet girl graduate,—make life joyous for them. They want to look and feel their best. Ribbons help them.

There are beautiful suggestions for the whole family. Lessons in interior decorating are given in its many pages of household charms. Keep a book always within your reach and be prepared for the unexpected party, or for any occasion which calls for an extra touch.

See pages 15, 16, 38 and 39 for useful suggestions in making Bows and Flowers
NEGLIGEEES OF LURING LOVELINESS

For the pair of slippers above, use: ½ yard of 4-inch ribbon for front, and the cut away pieces for back (see page 48). 2 yards 2-inch ribbon rolled to trim tops and ⅛ yard sewed together lengthwise for elastic. Decorate with buds.

The slippers to the right require: 1¾ yards 5-inch ribbon. A ¾-inch hem is made on top and 1/16-inch tuck below it gathered slightly to form the shape of the slipper. 8 inches is cut lengthwise in half and used for the plaited fancy. 6 inches makes each bow.

The simple but effective negligee illustrated above is trimmed with 4-inch satin ribbon which is gathered through the center as on page 40, diagram 1. 4 yards of the ribbon is used for each sleeve, 2 yards to outline the neck twice, and 4 yards for the bottom. The bonnet cap is illustrated and described on page 3, and the slippers above.

Above slippers require: ½ yard 5-inch ribbon. 1½ yards of ¼-inch ribbon for elastic (see page 17, diagram 1). Trim with petal-like fancy and bows.

The practical negligee above is bound neatly with ½-inch ribbon. 8 yards are required: 1¾ for neck and streamers, 1½ for front, 2 yards for bottom, 2 yards for sash, and 1¾ yards for sleeves. Pockets are made of ribbon buds.

Bows are illustrated and described on pages 15 and 16. Buds and Flowers, pages 38 and 39.

The exquisite negligee above is made of Georgette and trimmed with 25 yards of ¼-inch ribbon. Dainty buds in circles further decorate the whole. (For head band, see page 5.)
RIBBON RUNS ITS SILKY WAY THROUGH NEWEST UNDERTHINGS

The camisole illustrated to the left requires 6½ yards of 1-inch ribbon, forming three bands across the cover, stitched together with fagoting. The front bands are latticed (see page 40). 1 yard of the ribbon is used for the shoulder straps and 1½ yards of 1-inch lace for the top.

For the camisole to the right use 7 yards of 2-inch figured ribbon and 1 yard for the straps, Buds decorate the top and the tiny bow is placed on the shoulder. Elastic is inserted at the bottom.

The camisole below to the left is trimmed with ¼-inch picot-edge ribbon with double shoulder straps, and a looped bow, requiring 1½ yards of ribbon.

Step-ins to match camisole require 1½ yards of ribbon for each bow and the same amount for binding each leg.

The camisole below to the right is trimmed with ¼-inch picot-edge ribbon, and a looped bow, requiring 1½ yards of ribbon.

The camisole below to the right is trimmed with ¼-inch picot-edge ribbon, and a looped bow, requiring 1½ yards of ribbon.

The camisole below to the right is trimmed with ¼-inch picot-edge ribbon, and a looped bow, requiring 1½ yards of ribbon.

Practical Combing Jacket trimmed with Shirred Ribbon and Ribbon Flowers.

The camisole below to the left is trimmed with ¼-inch picot-edge ribbon, and a looped bow, requiring 1½ yards of ribbon.

Step-ins with Pointed Edge of Ribbon.

The brassiere above is bound with 1-inch satin ribbon on top and bottom, The straps are made of the same ribbon. About 2½ yards of ribbon is required.

See pages 38 and 39 for your choice of Buds and Flowers; for making Bows, pages 15 and 16.
BEGUILING NEW MODES IN LINGERIE

The chemise to the left requires 1 ¼ yards of 1-inch ribbon for each of the 3 bands across the top. One yard is allowed for the shoulder-strap and 2 yards to bind the bottom. Decorate with buds.

The tailored gown needs a touch of ribbon. One yard is used for the top. 11 ½ yards are drawn through the slits, and 1 ½ yards for 2 rows of ribbon used on each shoulder-strap. Allow ¾ yard for tailor-made bows.

The camisole is made of 7 rows of 1 ¼-inch figured ribbon sewed together. Each row requires 1 ¼ yards. One extra yard is used for the straps. Buds decorate the front.

The negligee to the left favors ribbon buds for trimming. 6 inches of 1-inch ribbon is used for each bud. 3 yards are required for the waistline, 1 yard rolled around waist and the rest for streamers.

The camisole above requires 1 ¾ yards of 1-inch Jacquard ribbon for each of the 4 rows which trim it. 1 yard is used for shoulder-strap.

The chemise to the right requires 2 ½ yard of 1-inch ribbon to enclose each of the lace circles, 1 yard for the top and 2 yards for the bottom and 1 yard for each of the double shoulder-strap.

For detailed descriptions of Buds and Flowers see pages 38 and 39; for Rosettes see pages 15 and 16.
KNITTING & CROCHETING WITH RIBBON SHOW ORIGINALITY

Crocheted bedroom slippers made of narrow baby ribbon are smart and practical. A crocheted fancy of the same ribbon trims the slippers, and ribbon 3/4-inch wide is pulled through the top.

The above sleeveless sweater was originally worked in pink and gray baby ribbon, shaded to give a two-tone effect. The result was charming.

Narrow baby ribbon is crocheted to make an attractive bonnet like the one illustrated to the left. Pink, blue, and white are baby's own colors, and any one of them may be employed in working the cap. 1/2 yard of 1/4-inch satin ribbon is used for each streamer.

A knitted tuxedo sweater of narrow baby ribbon is all that one can wish for in originality and neatness.

Baby ribbon forms a crocheted coat. It may be made of pink, blue, or white baby ribbon, and the picot edge would add a charming finish if worked in a contrasting color. 1 yard of 1-inch ribbon is used at the neck tied into a dainty bow when worn.

To make knitted or crocheted articles of baby ribbon, follow the directions ordinarily used for wool or floss, with the exception that fewer stitches are required.

The charming sweater of odd shape is also for baby and is made of narrow baby ribbon. Ribbon 1 inch wide trims sleeves and neck.

A crocheted bonnet of narrow baby ribbon is lined with a wide ribbon and trimmed with bows and streamers. 3 1/2 yards of 1 1/2-inch satin ribbon is used to trim each side of bonnet.

A handy bag made of baby ribbon with a tassel of the same is attractive. 2 1/2 yards of 8-inch ribbon lines the bag.

A crocheted coat is made of narrow baby ribbon with a wide ribbon and streamers. 2 1/2 yards of 1 1/2-inch satin ribbon is used to trim each side of coat.
THE VOGUE FOR BOWS AND ROSETTES

24 inches of 6-inch ribbon is used to make the shirred loop buckle through which the upper loops of this bow are drawn. Five 3/4-inch tucks are evenly spaced on the ribbon, as in Fig. 1, and a milliner's wire drawn through each tuck, as in Fig. 1. After the ribbon has been evenly shirred, all the five rows of wire are connected and gathered together, as in Fig. 2. Four loops of ribbon are laid, bow fashion, and a knot tied in the center, the two upper loops being drawn through the center of the buckle.

Diagram 3 indicates the manner in which the ribbon is laid for this simple Hair Bow. The one end is utilized to form the loop for the center. When this loop has been pulled tightly, the two ends are knotted in the back of the bow to hold it securely, as in Fig. 4.

Six loops and two ends are arranged as in Fig. 5. These are tied with a separate piece of ribbon as in Fig. 6.

One end and a loop, as in Fig. 7, are wound with several strands of thread to hold them securely. Five additional loops are each fastened in the same manner, as in Fig. 8. The remaining end of ribbon is drawn between loops three and four and is knotted on the reverse side, as in Fig. 9, the remaining end being cut the same length as the first end. Both ends are cut on the bias.

Two knots are placed in a short piece of ribbon, as in Fig. 10. The knots are placed in the center of two loops, which are held firmly by tacking. A rosebud covers the tacking.
KNOTS AND LOOPS THAT PARIS DECREES

A—The Bob Bow is a decidedly novel arrangement for wear with bobbed hair. There are 12 loops of 4 or 6 inch ribbon, with a knot centered in each loop. Each loop must be of equal length, but may vary from 6 to 10 inches, depending wholly upon the size of the bow desired. As indicated in Fig. 1, a small tuck is made across the ribbon, at intervals of 6 to 10 inches. A knot is made between the first and second tuck, as in Fig. 2. When, as in Fig. 3, 13 of these tucks are made a wire is run through them. The two ends of the wire are bent into a hook. Two ends finish the bow.

B—Is a Regulation Hair Bow, requiring from 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 yards of ribbon. It is made like the regular tailored bow, excepting that the knot in the center is drawn tightly and tied in the back. Details of a plain tailored bow indicated in Figs. 5 and 6. Tightened to shape a hair bow shown in Fig. 7.

C—This tailored bow is very simple to make. The ribbon is laid in folds as indicated in Fig. 8. A circle is cut into the last end of the ribbon, as in Fig. 9. The upper loops are drawn through it and the end of ribbon is plaited and fastened on wrong side. The ribbon following circle is laid in plaits and tacked back, covering the circle and making a simple but effective finish for the center, as illustrated in Fig. 10.

D—Rosette with knotted loops and ends. These can be made of any width ribbon, with the number of loops and ends varying from 4 to 40. When the length of the loops is determined upon, a knot is placed in the center of each one, as in Fig. 11. The loops are then folded and placed alternately to the right and to the left, and tied with a knot in the center. The ends may be knotted, or looped and knotted, as desired.

E—Whether the ribbon be wide or narrow, and the desired loops number 3 or 10, this rosette is simple to make if one but runs the needle diagonally across the ribbon as in Fig. 12, and gathers into a tight shirring. The center of the above rosette is made of very narrow ribbon, gathered into four loops in the same fashion.
"A RIBBAND FOR THY GARTER"

The above garters require 1 1/4 yards of 2-inch figured ribbon for the foundation, 2 1/4 yards of 1-inch satin ribbon for the under side of garter; allowing 1/4 inch on each side, sew as in Diagram I. Decorate with 3 buds.

These garters are made with 1 yard of 1 1/4-inch 2-tone ribbon, and the same amount of 1-inch ribbon of contrasting colour, sewed as in Diagram I. Decorate with 4 petals and bow.

Use 1 1/4 yards each of 2 contrasting colors of 3-inch grosgrain ribbon, and 1 yard of 1-inch ribbon of contrasting color, placed as in Diagram I. Decorate with large plaited wheel, another small one of contrasting color, and a tiny metal buckle.

These cockades on the slippers above require 1 yard of 1-inch grosgrain ribbon. Make 1/4-inch plaits, forming wheel of 3-inch diameter. 2 streamers 2 1/4 inches long trim each cockade. A metal buckle is placed in center.

The cockades on the slippers above require 1 yard of 1-inch grosgrain ribbon. Make 1/4-inch plaits, forming wheel of 3-inch diameter. 2 streamers 2 1/4 inches long trim each cockade. A metal buckle is placed in center.

RIBBON-BONS FOR PARTY FAVORS

A party is not complete without the proper decorations. Favors and gifts do not give the desired thrill unless tied in some secretive fashion with bands of ribbon. Whether a birthday, shower, or any other glorious occasion, the ribbon adds the final touch. It knots the tie of good will. The decorations pictured on this page were designed to beautify all happy occasions and the articles can be easily copied. All bows, rosettes and flowers are minutely described on pages 15, 16, 38 and 39.

Nothing could be more tempting. The glasses and plates are proof that hunger and thirst will be satisfied; and the basket of flowers adds a natural charm. But the beauty of effect would not be complete without the streamers of ribbon.

It may be a birthday, or a wedding, or a shower. All of these happy occasions could be celebrated with a table set as above. The ribbons branch off in streamers. The lamp shades are also made of ribbon, and everything seems to be favored with it.

A basket of flowers! It may be for the bride, or it may be someone’s birthday. That we do not know, but it is certain that something unusual is taking place, for see all the ribbons! Frills on the basket, more streaming from Cupid’s neck, and a great big wing bow at his belt. Even the flowers may be made of ribbon and kept forever as a reminder of the day. (See pages 38 and 39.)

Kerchiefs tied with ribbon. Even on a lamp—she loves ribbon.

Even bonbons are made sweeter by ribbon bows.

Cupid is announcing himself and is sure to be admitted because he is so prettily dressed up with ribbon.

Many boxes for Milady, but none complete without the bow of ribbon. What joy and expectancy as with trembling fingers she unfastens the silken knots.
“Now, just what am I going to wear?” A solved question and a sure “Blue Ribbon” for the masqueraders who adorn themselves in one of these costumes. Which is yours for the coming “affair”?

“All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy.” What joyful memories of our past parties, and masks, and the “heaps of good fun”! You remember the Blue Ribbon was given to the ancestor of Blue Ribbon itself—the Ribbon Masquerader. Ribbon has a charm,—a softness, a joyous air of festivity. Little Bo-Peep to the left is amply supplied. Her rival who is near her is decorated with many flowing streamers. Even our gallant youth above looks more gallant with his ruffle of ribbon about the neck. The masquerader in the left corner adds womanly charm to her dignity by the feminine touches of ribbon and dainty bows; and such coquettish ends are worn by the dame above!

The above may be the prizes that our fair ribbon winners will receive to put a happy climax to their fun. A garter, a vanity bag, a pillow, a cupid doll, and boxes to test our curiosity. All made more decorative by the ribbon touches.
CUSHIONS THAT ADD TO COMFORT AND BEAUTY AT HOME

I—Ribbon in All Its Glory
With a Shower of Silky Ends

II—Metallic Richness
With Tassel Finish

No. I made of plain ribbon combined with gold metallic ribbon. The cushion is 22 inches long and 18 inches wide, plaited to a width of 7 inches at one end.

2% yards of 6-inch ribbon is used for the cushion:
4 strips, each 32 inches long, for the top, with one or two plaits in each piece to fit the required width.
3 strips are used for the back. There are 12 ends, each 8 inches long.
4 yards of 1½-inch gold metallic ribbon outlines the 3 sides and seams. An extra ¾ yard is used for 5 streamers and ¾ yard for the trimmings at the end.

No. II is a long cushion. It measures 27 inches long and has a 27-inch circumference.
1½ yards of 10-inch metallic brocade ribbon cut in 2 strips is used for the foundation of pillow.
3½ yards of 8-inch black satin ribbon is arranged in 3 bands which are shirred around the circumference. The 2 end bands are shirred at the outer points to fit a flat piece of ribbon with a 5-inch circumference, which is inserted at each side. Tassels of gold and black hang from the center of the inserts.

No. III is another round pillow which measures 27 inches in length and has a circumference of 27 inches.
1⅛ yards of 10-inch ribbon forms 2 bands, each 27 inches long, for the foundation. The ends are shirred to a 12-inch circumference, to fit around a ribbon fancy placed at either end. 1 yard of 10-inch ribbon is shirred to a 12-inch circumference at the top, tapering off to a point, forming the fancy. 1 yard is used for the 2 wings which decorate the ends.
4⅛ yards of gold braid is cut into 6 bands and placed around the circumference. ⅛ yard of the braid is used around the top of the fancy and ⅛ yard outlines the wings.

No. IV is ideal for comfort and beauty. It is 20 inches in diameter. 3 yards of 10-inch taffeta ribbon is shirred to fit the circumference and shirred also at the top to fit a 7-inch diameter.
1½ yards is needed for lining the pillow. 4 strips are used. 2 yards of 1½-inch picot-edged ribbon for each of the 4 groups of shirring, and an extra 1½ yards to go around the center circle of 7-inch diameter.

III—Long Slender Lines Make Pillows Popular; Trimmings of Gold Are Attractive

No. V. A luxurious round pillow, 20 inches in diameter. 2½ yards of figured Ribbon 7¼ inches wide is shirred to fit the circumference.
2½ yards of 1⅛-inch velvet ribbon is plaited for the 6½-inch square, placed in the center.
½ yard is used for each of the loops extending from the corners of the square.
5½ yards of 1⅛-inch velvet ribbon is plaited around the circumference and outlines the lattice square.

Trim with rose leaves and buds.

V—Roses, Streamers and Figured Brocade All Combine for Real Comfort
DECORATIVE IDEAS THAT ARE SMART AND PRACTICAL

RIBBONS long and short, ribbons wide and narrow, and tiny bits of ribbon, all join ends to make the world more beautiful. And what a complete transformation they do make—those silken threads of loveliness! Can you imagine the comforts which will reign in a home, decorated with the articles on this page? They are all made of ribbon. It takes little time to make them, and only a fractional part of the cost it would take to buy them. And then the complete joy of saying, “I made it.”

Look through the pages of this unique and practical “Ribbon Art” book, so full of fascination, originality, and color. Choose the things you would love to have for your home or for your personal necessities. A store of real knowledge when mother’s, sister’s, or baby’s birthday comes around.

All these occasions will be doubly thrilling if you take a hand in forming the little bows and knots. Make some of these things and enjoy the fun of it, and the satisfaction which true economy brings.

Beautiful lamps cast beautiful light. The above shade is 21 inches in diameter. There are four panels each, of the plain ribbon and the figured ribbon.

1 1/2 yards of 9-inch jacquard ribbon and 1 1/2 yards of plain silk ribbon is used for the top of the shade.
2 1/2 yards of 9-inch ribbon is used for the lining, shirred to fit the shape of the lamp.
6 1/4 yards 1/2-inch gilt ribbon outlines the panels and top of the fringe.
3 1/4 yards 3/4-inch satin ribbon to cover the framework. (See page 48.)
4 1/2 yards of 4-inch colored fringe.

The runner to the left measures 60 by 18 inches; it will add dignity to any table. Materials required:
1 1/2 yards of 7-inch figured or novelty ribbon cut in six triangles, the same pattern used for each insert.
1 1/2 yards of 7-inch black satin ribbon.
8 1/4 yards of 3/4-inch figured gilt-edge ribbon to outline all the seams and panels.
4 1/4 yards of 8-inch satin ribbon for lining (3 strips).

A paper basket of cardboard is easy to make. The floor of the basket is 4 inches square, and each side at the highest point is 14 1/2 inches and at the bottom of point 12 inches. Each side has two points.
1 yard of 9-inch black satin ribbon is used for the lower half of the basket.
8 pieces of figured or novelty ribbon 9 1/4 x 5 inches each, from point to point are used for the top.
5 1/4 yards of 3/4-inch fancy gilt-edge ribbon binds the seams.
2 1/2 yards of 1/2-inch black satin ribbon binds the sides and bottom.
Gilt net lines the basket, and the edges are all bound with 1/2-inch ribbon.

Comfort and beauty combined are represented in this pillow. The background is black. It measures 21 inches square and requires:
1 1/2 yards of 6-inch black satin ribbon and 1 yard of 7-inch figured or fancy ribbon for top of pillow, forming triangles.
2 1/4 yards of 3/4-inch fancy gilt-edge ribbon for outlining panels and seams.
2 1/2 yards of 3-inch satin ribbon for sides.
1 1/2 yards of 8-inch satin ribbon for lining (cut in 3 strips).
SMALL—BUT OH, SO SMART!

1, 2, 3, 4—Four ribbon charms for the lassie's dress-up. The wheel-fancy with long, wide streamers and the smaller one with narrow streamers, will make beautiful finishing touches that may be worn on any of her dresses. And the wreath of ribbon wheels is a headband for her curly locks. The large bow tells its own story.

The butterfly does not really wish to get away from this charming little maid—with so many, many silk-en-thrads that he himself took a hand in manufacturing. Her dress, socks, and even her shoes have touches of alluring ribbons.

"I am the original little ribbon girl," is what she is undoubtedly telling us. It is self-evident of course.

What would the roses do without such little maids to carry them? Her ribbons are fresh as the roses themselves.

All dressed up for her stroll! She likes ribbon added to give the "finis" to her clothes. The ribbon hat is described in detail on page 48.

THE RIBBON EDICT OF PARIS

Collar and cuff sets trimmed with dainty colored ribbon are much in demand, and the above is only one of the many possibilities for trimming small things. Baby ribbon in 2 contrasting colors is used. The same original touch may be added to vests, felt hats, simple dresses, baby things and details.

The vestee with Peter Pan collar is made entirely of ribbon. 11/4 yards of 9-inch fancy ribbon makes the vest, and 1 1/2 yards of 8-inch plain ribbon is used for Peter Pan collar. The opening at the neck is trimmed with blanket stitches of baby ribbon.

The hat made of grosgrain ribbon is durable and may serve all occasions. The one illustrated here is made of 35 yards of 1/4-inch ribbon. The crown is made in lattice work (see page 40) and ribbon buds decorate the entire brim. Buds of this kind are easy to make, for it requires 1/2 yard of ribbon wound spirally around the center for each bud. (See page 35.)

WE all adore making pretty things—and why not? Have you only a little spare time? If so, you will find the suggestions in this book helpful, for some take little more than minutes to accomplish. Are you planning to remodel your home? Be your own interior decorator—there are all sorts of happy ideas for the home. Is there going to be a shower for your chum? Below is a dainty sachet bag that will find a ready nook in her hope chest. If you yourself are a bride-to-be, you will find all your expectations fulfilled for the decoration of your home, and for dainty additions to your hope chest. Birthdays, too, bring joy when you are able to make such a charming basket, or a screen, or shoe trees, as illustrated on this page.

Shoe trees neatly decorated with ribbon fit in with the rest of her carefully arranged wardrobe. 1 yard 4-inch figured ribbon is used for each tree, and a rosette of 4 inches of the ribbon with 2 brns in the center further ornaments each of the trees.

The heart-shaped sachet bags require: 3/4 yard of 4-inch satin ribbon for each heart, sewed together with overcasting stitches of narrow baby ribbon. 3 1/2 yards of 1/2-inch 2-tone ribbon forms the loops and ends. 3/4 yard is used for the bud.

The stately doll which serves her part in acting as a telephone screen is dressed with 5 yards of 9-inch ribbon to form the skirt and bodice. 7 yards of 1/4-inch ribbon is plaited to form the decorative bands on the dress. See page 40 for plaiting.

Many rose petals make this attractive lamp-shield. 4 yards of 5-inch ribbon is used, each petal 2 inches. 1 1/4 yard of 8-inch ribbon covers the frame (see page 48). For petals see below.

The basket above is decorative and useful. In the library or sitting-room it claims equal place with any of the furnishings, even though it is only a waste-paper basket. 4 yards of 9-inch changeable ribbon are used for the foundation. 5 yards of gold braid are required for the trimming. 5 yards of 1/2-inch ribbon cover the framework (see page 48). 4 yards of plain ribbon 9 inches wide are used to line the basket.

The screen above is useful and adds dignity and importance to the telephone. It is made of: 1 1/4 yard 7-inch ribbon for the center panel; 7 inches cut in half and used for each of the side panels, 10 yards of ribbon is used for the trimming.
THE VOGUE DECREES THAT RIBBON DECORATE
THE BOUDOIR

FASHION demands a ribbon touch—from tiny tot to grandma. Baby’s dainty accessories are not as charming without it. The little Miss finds her hair bow and her ribbon such most important to her amateur coquetry. And the sweet girl graduate with quivering hand unties the ribbon bow from her diploma. The bride, too, finds herself entangled in streams of ribbon which help her shine forth in all her beauty and grace. Mother holds to youth by adding a ribbon touch to her garments, and even grandmother ties a bow on her new bonnet. The boudoir claims a goodly amount of it, for in her privacy Miss Lady glories in the dainty touches that add color to her surroundings.

This pincushion is large and will be of great service to the needleworker because of the ample amount of pins and needles it may hold. ½ yard of 6-inch ribbon is used to cover the cushion, which is 4 inches long. 3 yards of ½-inch ribbon is used for the brand which outlines the cushion. Buds and bows also decorate it.

A pincushion that may also serve the part of a boudoir ornament is illustrated in the one above. The pincushion proper is circular with a flat base. It is covered with ribbon and stands on 3 metal balls. The dress and bodice are made of 1½ yards of 4-inch ribbon, and the boxes of 1 yard of 1-inch ribbon.

The sewing basket above is made of 6½ yards of more ribbon 5 inches wide, which is gathered both inside and outside the frame. 5 yards ½-inch satin ribbon to cover frame (see page 48). Fittings consist of ribbon, scissors, wax, emery, and thimble.

The head band is made of 3 strips of ribbon each 1½ yards long; 2 strips of 3-inch ribbon, and 1 of ½-inch metallic ribbon are braided. 2 yards of 1-inch satin ribbon are used for the flowers.

A waste-paper basket like the above will serve even for scrap of the most sacred documents. 2½ yards of satin ribbon 9 inches wide are used for the outside and bottom, 2 yards of 6-inch ribbon for sides, 1½ yards of 1-inch ribbon for handles. Roses and leaves trim the basket.

The doll forming the boudoir lamp is made of 1½ yards of 10-inch ribbon edged with 4 yards of gold lace. 5½ yards of baby ribbon cover frame. Trim with buds.

For Buds and Flowers, see pages 38 and 39
"HERE comes the bride." And a charming and smiling one. It is an occasion of great joy and solemnity, and the little flower girls and bridesmaids are charmed, too—for there is an unusual beauty cast on everything. It might be because of the bride's own beauty, but everyone is aware that it is not just that. There is something alluring, something fairylike, about the streams and streams of dainty ribbon that are flowing everywhere. The altar, the bride's dress, and veil, and her headdress, too—all have this touch of feminine charm. And the wide-eyed little flower girl in her innocent loveliness, shines out from her entanglement of ribbons. The knots and loops on her bouquet add to the natural beauties of the flowers. All these soft and shining strips instill an air of confidence, for being led to the altar in silken fashion prophesies a straight and joyous path.

All these bows, knots, flowers, etc., are described in detail on pages 15, 16, 28 and 39, and you can make them for any of your parties—and add personal pride to the scene.
The camisole made of lace and ribbon requires 10 yards of ½-inch satin ribbon for top and panels, and 1 yard for two straps.

The up-to-date bride wears a dress trimmed with many ribbons and a headdress to match.

Our brave little ring-bearer delivers his treasure on a dainty white pillow of ribbon decorated with rosettes and streamers.

A gown of white georgette is trimmed with ¼-inch figured ribbon forming 4 shoulder straps and 4 straps hanging over arm, each 12 inches long. 5 long streamers hang on either side front and back, and rosettes add the finishing touch.

A petticoat! The ruffles of lace are decorated with ribbon, making alternate panels of the lace and ribbon. 2 ½ yards of ¼-inch ribbon is used for each of the 8 panels which are decorated with a bud at each end. 15 inches of ribbon outlines the bottom of each of the lace scallops.

The step-ins are made in the same way as the petticoat illustrated above and match the camisole in the left corner. They require 2 yards for each of the 8 panels and 12 inches of ribbon to outline each of the lace scallops.

A headband for the bride or bridesmaid may be made as above of 6 yards of ¼-inch ribbon.
TO COMPLETE THE COSTUME

2½ yards of 10-inch ribbon is required for the fashionable girdle above. Both sides have the streamers. The belt is shirred to 3 inches on either side, and beaded ornaments 3 inches wide are placed above the streamers.

The belt is shirred to 3 inches on either side, and beaded ornaments 3 inches wide are placed above the streamers.

A girdle as illustrated to the right requires 2½ yards of 7½-inch ribbon. A fancy like the one illustrated to the left is placed on either side.

The wheel fancy above is only one of the many stunning decorations that are used for sashes and belts. It is made on a cardboard foundation with 4 yards of ribbon for the center and edge. A piece of ribbon is puffed for the center, around which 18 loops, each 1 inch long, are placed. The bias rosettes on the outside row are each 1¼ inches long.

The artistic girdle to the left is made of ½-inch grosgrain ribbon pulled through wooden beads. Many streamers hang down the sides. For details of working, see page 57.

The artistic girdle to the left is made of ½-inch grosgrain ribbon pulled through wooden beads. Many streamers hang down the sides. For details of working, see page 57.

Black velvet makes a girdle that may be worn with any costume. 4½ yards of 2-inch ribbon is used for the one illustrated to the left. 1½ yards is used for the streamers. The twisted rosettes at either side of waistline are made of ½-inch velvet, each loop requiring 7 inches of the ribbon. There are 21 petals in each of the rosettes.

Five strips of metallic ribbon are used to make the belt above. ½ to 1 yard is used for each strip, and the ends are fastened on a strip of the ribbon which is decorated with 2 small tailor-made bows. A corsage of a lily and a bud decorates the side. (Lily petals made like Jonquil, page 38.)

This girdle shown to the right is made of 2½ yards of 6-inch ribbon. The streamers are arranged in 3 plaits at top, and the belt is also plaited to a 4-inch width. 8½ yards of ¾-inch ribbon is required for the loops which are made on a cardboard foundation. (See diagrams to the left.)

See pages 15 and 16 for Bows, 33 to 39 for Trimmings.
THAT NECESSARY SPOT OF COLOR

The girdle to the left is made of 5 yards of 1-inch picot-edge ribbon. Allow for waistline. Use 3 1/2 yard for loops on either side and rest for 2 streamers. Belt line is trimmed with bands of 2 1/2 inches each of 2 contrasting shades of ribbon. See diagram, page 48.

Below is an illustration of the fancy used on the girdle to the right. 4 wheels of box plaiting are placed around a foundation of the same ribbon. Steel beads decorate the center.

The full-blown rose to the right is one of the simplest flowers in Ribbonland. Each petal takes 2 1/2 inches of 1 1/4-inch ribbon and is shirred at the bottom, and rounded at upper ends. (See page 55.)

7 strips of 1/2-inch grosgrain ribbon are used to make the girdle to the right. Each strip is 2 yards long. The belt line is knotted in sections in honeycomb effect, and in other sections ribbon is sewed together and fastened with steel beads. (See fringe on page 37 for further details.)

The girdle to the left gives the correct lines and smartness to the most simple garment. Black ribbon with white edge, 1 1/2 inches wide, is used for waistline made entirely of petals. (See diagrams below.) The large fancy is also made of the petals.

3 1/2 yards of 8-inch ribbon is used for the girdle below: full length streamers require 1 1/4 yards each, and 1/2 yard is doubled lengthwise for each fancy. See diagrams to the left. 7 yards of 2-inch ribbon is used for the plaiting. Each ruffle uses 1/4 yard, and 1/2 yard for each fancy.

Ribbon stitched lengthwise as above and shirred to form outside ruffle (to the left).

A ribbon belt which is braided in 2 shades of ribbon is the height of good style. Make size required for waistline allowing 1/2 yard for braiding. Simple metallic buckles are placed in front for fastening.

PRACTICAL BAGS MAY BE PICTURESQUE

The brush bag is made of 1 1/2 yards of 5 1/2 inch ribbon for the foundation, and 2 pockets are placed on the inner side; 1 pocket requires 5 inches of the ribbon and is used for the whiskbroom, and the other 7-inch pocket, for the brush. 1 1/2 yards of 1-inch velvet ribbon binds the edges and pockets. A loop of velvet is placed at each point and a bow below the large pocket.

The work bag is made of Roman striped ribbon. 2 yards of 7-inch ribbon were used, 1 yard for front and 1 yard for back. The top is 14 inches wide and is attached on a wire foundation. 5 inches of gold metallic ribbon 1 1/2 inches wide runs down the center, front and back, around which the striped ribbon is shirred. 2 yards of 1 1/2 inch gold metallic ribbon binds the top and forms a loop for the handle.

The slipper bag uses 1 yard of 5 1/2-inch ribbon for each compartment, allowing 2 1/2 inches for hem on top. The two inner sides are sewed together, making it necessary to use 1 draw-string of 1-inch velvet, 1 yard long. All the seams are bound with the velvet.

The above work basket has a wicker bottom and a ribbon top. The diameter is 5 1/2 inches. 4 3/4 yards of 5-inch ribbon is used to form top. 2 3/4 yards 2-tone is used for draw-strings, bows, and for outlining top of wicker basket.

3 3/4 yard of 9-inch ribbon is used for this bag, the same amount for the lining; 1 1/4 yard allowed for pockets. 6 1/2 yards of 1-inch ribbon are corded and braided for the handle and top. Flower sprays decorate front.

For Bows, Streamers, etc., see pages 15 and 16. For details on Buds, pages 38 and 39.
PARTICULARLY SMART MILLINERY MODES

The hat in the upper corner is trimmed with a large rosette of many loops. 4 rows of loops of varying sizes, all meet in the center.

The hat above requires 2 1/2 yards of 7-inch ribbon. 1 1/8 yards is used for the loop and end, the remainder around the crown.

The distinctive hat in the center of the page is trimmed with 2 1/2 yards of 7-inch ribbon; 3/4 yard around crown and 1 1/4 yards for loops which are held in place by ribbon wire.

The hat above with streamers requires 6 1/2 yards of 7/8-inch grosgrain ribbon, 1 1/8 yards for crown and 2 1/4 yards for each of the side decorations.

The hat in the upper right hand corner requires: 2 1/2 yards 0-inch ribbon—1 3/4 for bow and 3/4 for crown. The bow is wired.

Rosettes on hat above require 5 yards of 5-inch ribbon. One is placed below and one above the brim.

Millinery Bows and Fancies are described in detail on pages 15 and 16.
BRIMFUL OF SMARTNESS ARE THESE RIBBON TRIMMED HATS

A Hat Favored with a Seven-Looped Bow

4 yards of 5-inch ribbon is needed for the 7-looped satin bow above. If the crown is decorated, an extra ¼ yard is required.

The very fashionable hat below requires for its bow trimming, 2½ yards of 6-inch ribbon with a fancy edge.

The Youthful hat above uses 2½ yards of 6-inch ribbon. One loop of ½ yard is placed on crown and 2 streamers hang down from the brim. The crown requires ¾ yard additional.

A Band of Ribbon That Binds the Latest Fashions

A band of oddly twisted ribbon is all that is needed for good taste and good style. 2 yards of 3-inch ribbon is required. (See pages 34 and 35 for ribbon plaiting.)

Such Bows Add Chic and Completeness

2 yards of 9-inch ribbon makes the bow for the hat below.

Distinctive Smartness Is Added by a Looped Bow Tilted at One Side of a Hat

Each wheel fancy takes 5 yards of 2-inch grosgrain ribbon. (See pp. 33 and 39.)

KNACKS OF THE PARISIAN MODISTE

C—Details for making this effective cockade are the same as illustrated for A. Turn finished cockade so that the back becomes the front as indicated in Fig. 6. Tuck the outer points into a small circle. The inner points are already tacked to form a circle. Draw a ribbon through these two circles, and place a knot over the upper one, as indicated in illustration.

D—Process of making this dainty trimming is exactly the same as that employed in the first five steps of Fig. A. Cockade is turned face backward, as indicated in Fig. 6; the inner and outer points are held one over the other and tacked together, forming one center circle through which a piece of ribbon is drawn and knotted as illustrated.

A—The rosette at the upper left is as easy to make as it is charming when completed. Take ribbon 1½ inches wide or wider, preferably grosgrain, and after making bias folds as indicated in Figs. 1 and 2, place the right-hand bias immediately over the left-hand bias as indicated in Fig. 3. This gives the first petal of the cockade. Fold the remaining portion of the ribbon at right angles as indicated in Fig. 4 to form another bias and lay the third bias over the second. Then repeat the first step as indicated in Fig. 5, again laying the right-hand bias over the left-hand bias, which gives two petals. When these two petals are done, start tacking at the inner points where the petals meet, indicated by letter X in Fig. 5, and begin the third petal as indicated in Fig. 4, repeating until 24 petals are done. Finish center, where points are connected, with self-covered button. Of 1½-inch ribbon, 2 yards are required for a 24-petal cockade. Of 2-inch ribbon, 4 inches are required for each petal.

B—Make center exactly like Fig. A, placing a loop of contrasting ribbon in the slit between each petal.

E—Any width ribbon may be used to make this ornament, which is particularly desirable for children's hats. Take a length measuring twice the width of the ribbon and fold over as indicated in Fig. 7, each loop being a perfect square. After 14 have been made, and piled one on top of the other as indicated in Fig. 8, draw a needle through the lower left-hand corner of all the squares, tuck securely. Then begin pushing each looped petal out, spacing evenly to form a complete cockade, as in Fig. 9. There are 2 ends on the one illustrated. The center is finished with a self-covered button.
RIBBON SHOWS ITSELF EVERYWHERE

A—32 pieces of ribbon each 4 inches long are required to make this ornament. 14 pieces, folded into 2-inch loops as indicated in Fig. 1, are laid on a foundation to form a semicircle, as indicated in Fig. 2. 18 2-inch loops are also laid in a semicircle ½ inch below the outer edge of the first row of loops, as indicated in Fig. 3. 5 pieces of ribbon are required to cover the center. The cut ends of the ribbon are folded diagonally, as indicated in Fig. 4, and placed one over the other as illustration shown.

B—On a foundation, draw an outline of a diamond. Place ½-inch grosgrain ribbon around the outline of the diamond, folding over at each point as indicated in Fig. 6, and then alternately drawn over the right-hand piece of ribbon and under the left-hand piece, forming a lattice.

C—2 pieces of ribbon the required length are laid vertically side by side. Another ribbon of equal length is drawn over the left-hand piece and under the right-hand piece, the ribbon folded as in Figs. 1 and 2 on page 33. The ribbon is then alternately drawn over the right-hand piece of ribbon and under the left-hand piece, forming a lattice.

D—Is the reverse of C.

E—1½-inch grosgrain ribbon is desirable for this particular trimmings, but narrower widths may be used. Fold a piece of ribbon as indicated in Fig. 8 so that the two selvage edges where they face each other are ½ inch apart. Lay the right-hand bias ¼ of an inch below the left-hand bias. Repeat the folding as in Fig. 8. Then lay the left-hand bias ¼ of an inch below and repeat process.

F—Is made in the same manner as E, excepting that a straight edge—often desirable on hats and dresses—is obtained by tucking in the points on the left side—or the right if desired—as illustrated in Fig. 9.

G—Is the reverse side of E. It can be pulled out and twisted about to form a variety of very interesting cockades, finished in the center with self-color or contrasting buttons or streamers, as desired.
TRIMMINGS THAT LEND THEMSELVES TO MANY DECORATIONS

A—This trimming is effective for hats and dresses. In order to make one yard of banding, 3 yards of ribbon are required. The ribbon is folded as indicated in Fig. 1, 1/4 being required for a foundation and the other 3/4 to make the puffing. The upper piece of ribbon is turned at an angle as indicated in Fig. 1. Take the ribbon at the point indicated by the X, bring it over to the right-hand side and tack it 1/4 inch below the upper fold on the right selvage, as indicated in Fig. 2. Then lay the upper piece of ribbon directly over the lower piece of ribbon and stitch across as indicated in Fig. 3. The puff of the ribbon may either remain turned up, as in Fig. 3, or down, as in Fig. 4.

B—Is a very simple but effective trimming made by taking ribbon, grosgrain preferably, and cutting it into squares. The ends are fringed and the squares laid on a piece of narrow ribbon tacked at even intervals either with French knots or small beads.

C—A wide piece of ribbon is used for a foundation. 1-inch ribbon is laid in the form of a square with the corners basted as indicated in Fig. 5. The inner rows are laid over as indicated in Fig. 6, each row a separate piece of ribbon. Cover stitches with button and two ends, as illustrated.

D—Infinite variety of Roman key patterns can be made of ribbon. The one illustrated is simple to follow. Care must be exercised to get the corners turned at definite right angles.

E—Is made exactly as Fig. A, except that 3 plaits are made between each puff. In E the folds are shown laid downward, whereas in A the folds of the puffs are shown laid upward.
EFFECTIVE DRESS AND MILLINERY TRIMMINGS

A—Insert a piece of wire through the center of a mold made of wood, tissue paper, or cotton. Cover the entire mold with milliner’s glue and wind 1/8 inch grosgrain ribbon over it as indicated in illustration. Continue winding about 1 inch down the stem and then insert the leaf. Repeat the winding and insert the other leaves at intervals desired, until entire stem is covered.

B—Is made exactly as A, excepting that a picot-edge ribbon is slightly gathered as indicated in Fig. 1, and tacked in vertical rows on the ribbon-covered mold, making a chestnut burr in effect. The leaves are made by drawing up the thread on the inner picot selvage and looping the ribbon as indicated in Fig. 2. These leaves are caught in the stem in the same manner as in illustration A.

C—Is made on the same kind of mold as A and B, excepting that the gathered picot-edge ribbon is tacked spirally over the entire mold and two ends of the same ribbon are suspended from the base of it. The irregular effect is caused by the gathers. The two ends are tacked at the base.

D—A piece of cardboard or buckram 1 inch wide by 7 inches long is tacked with an inch overlapping, making a circle 6 inches in circumference. This is covered inside and out with 6 inches of grosgrain ribbon. 12 pieces of ribbon 10 inches long, 1 inch wide, are required for the knotted ends. These are knotted 3 inches from each end and are folded in the center. These folded pieces are tacked top and bottom as illustrated in Fig. 3, at intervals of 1/2 inch apart around this frame. An additional piece of ribbon is looped between each one of the tuckings in the same manner as one would make a buttonhole stitch, as indicated in Fig. 4. The ribbon is then spread so that the knots make a regular circle. The ends are cut diagonally.

E—This is a very effective trimming for a dress or hat. Fold a piece of ribbon as indicated in Fig. 5, and tack. Then reverse the loop as indicated in Fig. 6, tack again, forming a double diamond shape. The process is repeated as many times as required for the length of trimming needed. Several widths of ribbon are suitable, but the 3/4-inch width in grosgrain is preferable.

F—Fold a piece of ribbon as indicated in Figs. 1 and 2 on page 33. Gather the ribbon one-sixteenth of an inch from the edge on the bias, fold as indicated in Fig. 7 to the right. Refold the balance of the ribbon in the same manner, continuing to gather the other creases as in Figs. 8 and 9. The size of the loops can be regulated by the fullness of the shirring as indicated in Fig. 10.
MODISH TRIMMINGS FOR THE FROCK OR BONNET

A—Grosgrain ribbon from 1 to 2 inches wide may be used for this effective flower. The ribbon is folded for each petal as indicated in Fig. 1. The outer points are folded over as indicated in Fig. 2. Repeat this process until the desired number of petals are made. The ribbon should be cut for each petal. Attach a wire for the stem to the connecting point of all the petals. Cover with a knot and continue to wind the ribbon about the stem, adding leaves at desired intervals.

B—Fringe made of ribbon is particularly desirable to finish cut ends. Any even number of strands may be employed. The top and second strands are knotted together, the third and fourth are knotted, and so on across the entire number of strands. (See Fig. 4.) About ½ inch below the first row of knots, the second and third strands should be knotted, then the fourth and fifth, and so on, repeating the knotting in the same manner until the desired number of rows are finished. (See Fig. 5.) Wider ribbon may be utilized, but ¼ inch is preferable.

C—A very smart yet simple trimming is made by gathering 3 inches of ½ inch ribbon to form a circle 3½ inch in diameter as indicated in Fig. 6 to the left. A ribbon is drawn through the rings over the seams as in Fig. 7. In tacking this ribbon on to the material which it will trim, steel beads may be used along the outer edges.

D—A wire is drawn through each of the loops of a loop-edged ribbon as illustrated in Fig. 8. Form a complete circle as illustrated in Fig. 9. The thread making the loop-edge on the inner part of the circle is drawn in, forming the gathers and the inner circle. Narrow baby ribbon is used to cover the wire between each loop as illustrated in Fig. 10. In order to cover the seam, a length of ribbon is drawn through the hole, making streamers.

E—A piece of light ribbon and a piece of dark ribbon are placed at angles indicated in Fig. 14. Fold the dark ribbon over the light ribbon as indicated in Fig. 16 and then fold the light ribbon over the dark ribbon in the same manner, repeating the process until sufficient of this effective trimming is obtained. Tack at frequent intervals.

F—3-inch grosgrain ribbon is desirable for this trimming. The ribbon is gathered with 2 rows of shirring. See Figs. 11 and 12. Ribbon covered buttons are placed at intervals of 1 inch apart and ½ inch from the lower edge. See Fig. 13. This ruffle can be converted into a very interesting band if gathered at the lower selvage as well.
WHEN RIBBON BLOSSOMS INTO FLOWER

Full Blown Rose

When this blossom is made of varying shades of pink and rose, or the lighter orange yellow tones, the creation rivals Nature's fairest flower. The center petals which gather around stamens of yellow, are small, each succeeding row of petals increasing in size. Petals, varying slightly in shape from Fig. 1, are cut from a 3 or 5 inch satin ribbon. The outer edge of each petal, on the back, is tipped with milliner's glue; the edge is then turned back one-sixteenth of an inch and pressed with a warm iron. (See Fig. 2.) The smaller petals are gathered around the stamens, and the next larger size petals, laid around petal by petal until the flower is completed. A stem with leaves attached is fastened to the center of the flower after all the petals have been assembled, and a calyx attached where the stem connects with the blossom. (A calyx may be purchased in a millinery supply dept.)

The details of both these buds are the same except that the first one is made of a ribbon with a heavy satin edge, and in the second one, the ribbon is folded double. The ribbon is first twisted spirally as in Figs. 5 and 6 and continues to wind spirally. When a bud or rose of the size desired is obtained, the ribbon is pulled down toward the stem, as in Fig. 7, and is tied with thread, connected to the stem, and finished with a calyx.

This is the front view of the attractive Jonquil illustrated in color on the back cover. The center of the jonquil is made like the poppy bud, Fig. C, page 39, and the outer petals as indicated in Fig. 10. A piece of ribbon is folded over (see Fig. 9) and a short piece of fine wire runs down the center, held down by the stitches which connect the ribbon forming the petal. Five petals surround the center. These are bent back to simulate the petals of a jonquil.

Four petals, similar in shape to Fig. 8, are cut out of a piece of satin ribbon. The edges are tipped with milliner's glue, turned back one-sixteenth of an inch, and pressed with a hot iron. The petals are then gathered about a few stamens, fastened to a wire stem, which is covered with dark green ribbon.
GAY TOUCHES FROM THE GARDEN OF RIBBONS

The inner and outer petals are made in the same manner, except that a 1½-inch ribbon is used for the outer petal, and this ribbon cut through the center (half width) is required for the smaller petal. Cut ribbon as in Fig. 1, gather and fold over as in Fig. 2, winding a wire around the blossom. The bottom of the flower is finished with a calyx.

Petal of varying size, cut as in Fig. 3, rolled at side and gathered top and bottom as in Figs. 4 and 5, are placed around a full group of stamens. Connect the base of the petals to a stem, and cover the connection with a calyx. This flower is easy to make, and the results most gratifying.

The details for making this flower are exactly the same as those employed in making the full blown rose, Illustration A on page 39, excepting that petals, one-half the size, of white satin ribbon are required. Petals should be cut as in Fig. 10.

A single piece (not doubled) of 2-toned ribbon is cut as in Fig. 11, the upper corners being rolled back and tucked, showing the 2 shades of ribbon. Gather at the base, as Fig. 12. The inner petals require ½ to 1½ inch less ribbon than the outer petals, and are rolled tightly for first petal, as indicated on bud in illustration. The other petals are laid around the inner petal until a blossom of the size desired is completed.

Many articles of decoration or wearing apparel need only the above variation for trimming. The lace runs crosswise and the ribbon up and down, overlapping to form a point.

Turned Petal

Make petals above by folding strip of ribbon as in 2. Lap over both upper corners and gather at bottom as in 3. Many of these petals placed around some stamens (bought in millinery supply departments) will make charming trimmings.
SOFT GLOWS THE LIGHT THROUGH RIBBONS SIFTED

The pair of lampshades above have a diameter of 4 inches at the bottom of the shade. Two-thirds yard of 3½-inch ribbon covers the shade. Two-thirds yard of ½-inch gold lace is placed around top and bottom, and ¼ yard of ½-inch ribbon is used for the bow.

The concave shields above require for each of them: 1½ yards of 3¼-inch ribbon shirred to a point in the center and decorated with buds and leaves. Two-thirds yard of ¼-inch gold lace is placed around the circumference. 8 inches of ribbon ½-inch wide used for the lining.

This effective floor lamp is lined with a 12-inch printed ribbon, the pattern which reflects itself through the chiffon which covers it. Gold lace adds a note of richness and beauty to the ensemble. The ruffle around the bottom is made of chiffon and is covered with lace. The lace at the top, the panel in the center, and the ruffle are trimmed with bowknots of ribbon with a rosebud in the center.

For each of the shields above use: One-sixth yard of 5-inch ribbon for the front panel, and the same amount cut in half for each of the 2 side panels. Bind with 1½ yards of ½-inch ribbon.

A hanging shade like the one above is easily made; it is 5 inches in diameter and 7 inches high and has 4 panels. Each panel requires 7 inches of 4½-inch ribbon. The seams, top and bottom, are decorated with 4 yards of ribbon shirred through the center (see diagram 1, page 40). Another 1 ½ yards are allowed for the top streamers and bow.

A shield to fit the double fixture is the one above. Cover with ¼ yard of ½-inch ribbon and outline all sides with 1½ yards of ¼-inch gold metallic ribbon.

The exquisite lampshade above, built like a drum, is made of strips of ribbon laid vertically in the upper section and horizontally in the lower section. The thickness of 3 inches is also made in horizontal strips. Gold lace decorates both sides of the shade and large gold tassels and fringe are placed at the front. ½-inch ribbon is used throughout. A flower spray made of ribbon is placed on the top of the fringe.

BAGS AND PURSES—PROUD WITH RIBBON

An envelope bag entirely made of ribbon and trimmed with hands of a contrasting color is charming.

The bag is 10 inches long by 8 inches wide. It requires 2½ yards of 1½-inch ribbon and 4½ yards of ½-inch forming double rows. 20 inches of 1½-inch ribbon for top, allowing ¾-inch hem for draw-strings. It is lined with four 10-inch strips of ribbon 5 inches wide.

The convenient bag above is made of 2 lengths of ribbon 8 inches wide by 9 inches long for front and back; plain ribbon is used for the lining and pockets.

The crocheted ribbon bag above is 10 inches long. The inside is made of two 10-inch lengths of 4½-inch ribbon, and outside handle and tassel of baby ribbon.

The above shows the envelope bag both opened and closed. It is 6 inches by 8 inches when closed, and requires 18 inches of 6-inch ribbon to form the outside. The inside is made of a lighter shade of ribbon and requires the same amount as the outside of the bag, with an extra ¾ yard for the three pockets. A tassel decorates the bag. The flap which fastens it is made of 2 inches of ribbon.

The above bag is made of figured ribbon. It requires 2 lengths, 9 inches wide by 10 inches long, and the same amount of plain ribbon for the lining. The design is outlined in pearl beads.

The above bag is 7 inches wide by 10 inches long and requires 20 inches of ribbon 7 inches wide. Several plait's are made at top where bag is fastened to frame. Handle is made of ½ yard 1-inch ribbon.

The fashionable bag above is made of ribbon 8 inches wide. 20 inches is needed for entire bag, the top of which is slightly gathered to fit the frame. ½ yard of 1-inch ribbon forms the handle.

Bag of ribbon shirred and ruffled. Use 1 yard of 9-inch ribbon for bag and 1 yard of 1-inch ribbon for draw-strings. Decorate with cherry clusters.

LAMPS AND PILLOWS FOR THE BOUDOIR

It is called a Jack Rose Lamp and requires: 4½ yards of 2-inch ribbon, each petal 4 inches long (see page 38); 1 yard of 6-inch ribbon is used to cover stem and base.

The lampshade above has 3 panels measuring 6 inches, and 3 panels of 3 inches. The height of each panel is 6 inches. Each wide panel is covered with ⅞ yard of the 3-inch ribbon gathered on frame vertically. 2½ yards of ⅗-inch gold metallic ribbon is used for trimming, tacked down at every inch. The front panel is decorated with leaves and flowers.

A beautiful shield for a small boudoir lamp of odd shape as above illustrated is made as follows: 2½ yards of 3-inch satin ribbon for the shield and frame. The panels are about 10 inches long and require twice as much ribbon for shirring (see page 40). All panels meet in a point at end. ¾ yard of 2-inch ribbon for the frame; 5 yards of gold braid for trimming; 4 yards of ⅛-inch ribbon to cover frame (see page 48).

The lady above forms a pincushion and she requires for her dress-up: 2 yards of 6-inch ribbon for dress, 3 yards gold lace for trimming skirt and bodice, 3 yards of ⅜-inch plaited ribbon for ruffle on cushion, 1 yard of narrow gold braid for edging cushion.

Another charming round pillow is illustrated above and matches the basket and lamp shown on page 40. The pillow is 18 inches in diameter. 8½ yards of 6-inch ribbon is shirred for front, requiring 2 widths of the ribbon. The back is plain. 2½ yards of 6-inch ribbon is cut in 3-inch squares and folded and gathered, forming the wheel-like motif (see diagrams to the right). The motifs are connected by means of metal threads. ½ yard of 6-inch ribbon in a contrasting color is used under the open-work formed by the wheel fancies.

Choice of Buds and Flowers are found on pages 38 and 39, and Rosettes on pages 15 and 16.
BOUDOIR LAMPS AND PILLOWS USE MUCH RIBBON

A lamp shield is covered and upon it is mounted a bisque doll. A bodice is draped with 9 inches of double-faced satin ribbon 6 inches wide, bound at the neck and sleeves with gold lace ¾-inch wide. Around the waist a double skirt is gathered, made of 1 yard each of 3-inch and 4-inch taffeta ribbon, edged with the gold lace. The skirts are lifted in back of the figure and placed around the outer edge of the shield.

Charming Pillows Favor Flowers and Buds

A pillow of beauty and comfort is found in the above. It is 15 inches in diameter, 2½ yards of 4-inch ribbon is corded and shirred around a center circle of ribbon 8 inches in diameter. A ruffle of 1¾ yards of 4-inch ribbon, allowing ½ inch on top for ruffling, is shirred and placed around the circumference. 1¾ yards of 7-inch ribbon lines the pillow.

For details of Buds and Flowers, see pages 38 and 39. For Rosettes, see pages 15 and 16.
LITTLE BELONGINGS OF THE BOUDOIR

As charming as the dainty handkerchiefs which it holds, in this box: 14 yard 6-inch satin ribbon for top; 3 yards 2-inch satin ribbon formed in 1/4-inch plaits around box. 1 yard 2-inch gold braid for top.

The pin tray is decorated with 2 yards of 1-inch satin ribbon pleated in 1/4-inch plaits and fitted around the tray. 1 yard of lace 1/2 inch wide to line the inside. 1 yard 2-inch lace covers the inside and extends on outside of tray.

The hair receiver to match the set requires: 3/4 yard 21/4-inch satin ribbon for top cover; 1 1/2 yards 21/2-inch satin ribbon plaited for sides; 1 yard of lace outlining top.

A runner much in vogue is made of open filet-work with ribbon pulled through the meshes. A lace edging outlines the runner and a bow of 1 1/2 yards of 3-inch ribbon is shirred and trimmed with buds to decorate the corner.

And that most important item—the powder box! It requires: 1/4 yard 4-inch satin ribbon for cover; 1 1/2 yards 21/2-inch satin ribbon plaited for sides; 1 yard of lace outlining top.

To make the hanger illustrated above one requires but little time and material. The hanger is 18 inches long and 3 inches wide. 1/2 yard of 31/2-inch ribbon is required for each side, decorated with 2 tiny bows requiring 2 inches of baby ribbon. 1 1/2 yards of 1/4-inch baby ribbon is used to cover hanger and base. Decorate with bow.

The attractive sachet case below is made of 3/4 yard of 4-inch ribbon shirred around a cardboard circle of 8-inch diameter. Carry ribbon over to reverse side and gather it around a 3-inch circle of ribbon. Each side is formed with strips of 1/4-inch ribbon, each 7 inches long, 7 strips of each of 4 colors alternate to form the front. The inside is padded with wadding and the outside is decorated with leaves and buds.

For detailed drawings and descriptions on Flowers and Buds, see pages 38 and 39.
THERE IS PERSONALITY IN THESE RIBBON CHARMS

The square handkerchief cover is made of 21 inches of ribbon 5 inches wide. The back requires 5 inches of the ribbon, and each of the flaps 4 inches. Both corners of the flaps are turned in, forming triangles which meet in the center. Tiny buds decorate each section.

The top of the powder container is made of a cardboard foundation covered with 4 inches of ribbon. 3/4 yard of 2-inch ribbon is shirred around circumference of the cardboard and gathered at the top. 1 yard of gold lace is used for trimming.

The sewing case above is made of 1/4 yard of ribbon 5 inches wide, worked on a foundation of stiff buckram. 3/4 yard of 1/4-inch gold metallic ribbon outlines all seams. Snaps are inserted for fastening.

The above box is a charming illustration of beautiful things that can be made of ribbon. The box is decorative and may serve many useful purposes as well. It will hold the dainty handkerchiefs, gloves, veils and other small items that are included in the careful wardrobe. The original box above is 3/4 yard long by 12 inches wide and 4 inches high. The top and sides are padded. Ribbon 4 inches wide is shirred for sides and 2 strips of 6-inch ribbon arranged in many folds covers the top. Gold lace binds the cover, top, and bottom of box. The inside is also lined with ribbon.

Effective lampshades are made of ribbon and fringe. The plaiting is made of 1/2-inch ribbon (see diagram 5, page 40). Panels of 2 contrasting shades of ribbon form the top of the shade. A heavy silk ribbon fringe hangs from the frame. The framework is covered with 1/4-inch ribbon. (See page 48 to cover frame.)

For choice of Buds and Flowers, see pages 38 and 39. For Rosettes, see pages 15 and 16.
