Tatted Corner Design

Circular Edging

The tattting design illustrates how the tattlestitch is used to make a border of small leaves and ornamental loops. The tattlestitch is a simple stitch that can be worked in a variety of ways, such as in a corner or along the edge of a larger piece of tatting. The finished design is a beautiful and elegant addition to any project.

Tatted Trimmed Hat

Materials: 20 yards conventional crochet cotton, 20 yards conventional tatting cotton, 8 buttons, 1 yard embroidery thread.

Instructions:
1. Cast on 100 stitches of conventional crochet cotton using a size 5 hook. Work in the round until the piece measures 10 inches in diameter.
2. Fasten off the end of the thread and leave a tail of about 6 inches.
3. Using the conventional tatting technique, work 100 leaves around the edge of the circular piece, joining the last leaf to the first leaf.
4. Using the embroidery thread, sew the buttons around the rim of the hat, spacing them evenly.
5. Finish the hat by blocking and pressing the edges.

Rose Petal Inserts

This pattern may be used for decorative purposes, such as adding a touch of elegance to a dress or table setting. Work the pattern in any desired color and use it to create a unique and beautiful centerpiece.

Four Leaf Clover Centerpiece
