

This is to let you know and see,
what care my parents took of me,
this work in hand my friends will have,
when I am dead and in my grave.

this work in hand my friends will have
what care my parents took of me
this is to let you know and see

And nothing in the world is dearer to me than to see you well

 This is to let you know and see,
what care my parents took of me.
This work in hand my friends will have,
when I am dead and in my grave.

Ann Collins in the twelfth year of her age 1825.

This is to let you know what care my parents this work in hand made when I am dead and now and see,

ants look of me.
y friends will have,
in my grave.
